Judicial Notice

Defendant Nathan Joel Peachey requests this Court to take judicial notice pursuant to FRCP Rule 201, of the facts herein stated, and serves notice to Plaintiff and assistance of Counsel of same.

Defendant has exercised inherent Rights pursuant to Pennsylvania Bill of Rights, Article 1, Section 25, US Constitution 1st and 9th Amendment and international private treaty law on August 24, 2021, a matter of record filed in this United States District Court under Overnight Mail filing registration No. EI056-929-539US to represent all matters as general counsel and ecclesiastical proctor via private attorney general in all inherent Rights, issues and the merits arising in this Case, that do not arise as Federal granted legal-right or privileges thereof, referenced in and pursuant to Attorney/Client Relationship of Assistance of Council Services Presentment and Acceptance Record Contract under Uniform Commercial Code 2-206 and 207 by UCC International Bill of Acceptance between Defendant and assistance of Council by International Security Registration Number RE310553585US on December 22, 2020 under Pennsylvania Apostille No.202025274, under (Convention De Laye Hague du 5 Octobre 1961).

Defendant has not and does not inadvertently waive attorney/client privilege and work-product intentional pursuant to FRCP Rule 502 (a) (1) by implication or otherwise, any past, present, or future communications and information protected between Defendant and assistance of Counsel. If, when and where to be construed as such, this Judicial Notice shall be construed to be a reasonable step pursuant to FRCP Rule 502 (b) (2) to give notice of no inadvertent waiver and to take the steps to prevent disclosure. Defendant at all times holds and maintains reservation of any Rights to protected attorney/client confidentiality privilege and work-product of all information and communication, without any implied or actual loss or waiver whatsoever, without prejudice, in any Constitutional, statutory legislative created legal-rights, or inherent Rights in the issues and merits of the Case proceeded in this Court; between him and Court appointed assistance of counsel Attorney John R. Hinrichs or assigns, pursuant to Pennsylvania Bill of Rights, Article 1, Section 25, US Constitution 1st and 9th Amendment, nunc pro tunc. Defendant furthermore gives Judicial Notice that it has not, does not, and will not waive, either implied or by consent, or otherwise, and does always maintain the inherent Right protected under the Pennsylvania Bill of Rights Article 1, Section 9; “cannot be compelled to give evidence against himself” and the inherent Right under US Constitution, 5th Amendment; “cannot be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself.”
